THE VENUE :

Located just 20 minutes west of Paris, Joyenval is an exclusive private members club unique in France.

Created in 1992 by Gaëtan Mourgue d'Algue, founder of the famous Lancôme Trophy, the Club boasts two 18-hole championship courses designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr, the legendary American architect. Ideally positioned within the historical "Désert de Retz", the two courses complement each other perfectly. Marly flows naturally from hole to hole, offering a wide variety of shotmaking and interesting angles for the golfer. Retz, whilst respecting the RTJ signature design characteristics, plays more like an inland "links" course. Both courses remain in remarkable condition throughout the year.
